Hands Off Iran!

Israel's attack on Iran makes the prospect of a catastrophic regional conflagration dangerously close. Israel has been given impunity for too long. The UK must not become involved in this dangerous escalation. No British military assets or personnel should be used in any way to support Israel's illegal aggression, nor should they support the US if Trump drags America into another overseas war. We demand the British government does all it can to de-escalate to avoid a catastrophic, possibly nuclear war.
